Malmö Games

Aug 18, 2017

Athletics

An athletic competition of international top class with the athletic club MAI and the newly formed foundation Malmo Athletic International as organisers.

The initiative to start Malmo Games comes from Bengt Bendeus, who also was the founder and chairman of the international meetings in Malmo during the 1980's and 90's, in cooperation with Rajne Soderberg, former meeting director of DN Galan in Stockholm. MAI is the technical organizer and the identity that applies for the permit. The foundation Malmo Athletic International has apart from Bendeus and Soderberg the members Lasse Johnson, since many years leader in the athletic club MAI and Daniel Wessfeldt, well known sports agent - together they have experience of organizing over 100 athletic meetings.

Paavo Nurmi Games

Jun 5, 2019

Athletics

The first Paavo Nurmi Games was arranged in 1957 as a birthday present to Nurmi on his 60th birthday. During his career Nurmi took 9 Olympic Gold medals and was among the first athletes to be nominated in the IAAF Hall of Fame. The tradition has gone on ever since and the event is held every year at the Paavo Nurmi Stadium named after the legendary runner.

Paavo Nurmi Games is expanding and evolving. Since 2017 the meeting will be a part of the IAAF World Challenge -series. Furthermore, various side events in celebration of Nurmi's achievements, such as Paavo Nurmi Junior Games, Paavo's Sports Day and Paavo Nurmi Marathon, will be held throughout the festival weeks.
